ADAM WORTH OF ASBURY PARK TELEVISION WINS 2018 NEW YORK EMMY® AWARDS FOR OUTSTANDING EDITOR: SHORT FORM AND OUTSTANDING PHOTOGRAPHER: SHORT FORM

5/15/18, Asbury Park, NJ – The National Academy of Television Arts and Sciences, New York Chapter, honored Adam Worth for Outstanding Editor: Short Form and Outstanding Photographer: Short Form for his work featured on Asbury Park Television (APTV.) The awards were announced this past April at the 61st Annual Gala where 800 television and media professionals from news, entertainment, sports, and advertising agencies in New York media were on hand to salute the outstanding accomplishments of their peers.

Worth has been an APTV contributor for several years and has created many compelling segments featuring local artists. He received 3 total 2018 nominations for a compilation of his work on APTV in the categories of Audio (along with James Baglino), Editor: Short Form and Photographer: Short Form. “We are incredibly proud of the team at APTV for their dedication and creativity,” said Councilperson Amy Quinn. “And we are especially proud that the Academy has recognized Adam for the incredible work he is producing to highlight Asbury Park.”
