 - Final decision on plans and locations: Behind Obama school, across from BGC, and any on Springwood Ave.
- Update on funding for the Better Lighting Project
 - Update on home depot for sponsoring supplies
 - Charles Brown is a consultant we used to help us develop Asbury Park Alive
- Discussion on how to address West Side shootings :
 - Proposal to have an event with moms speaking about lost children and motivation speaker
 - Coalition is being formed to address the shootings.
 - Rev. Akins suggested that there are 15 moms who have lost a child due to gun violence and perhaps they can be the face of the advocacy.
 - Perhaps we can create a luncheon for the moms and families who have lost someone. (perhaps at the chambers)
 - The “Love” foundation created for support of those affected by gun violence.
 - Asbury Park has “shot stopper” sensors in the city to tell where shots were fired
- Community & Cops
 - Cops sensitivity training has been implemented,
 - Cops athletic league events,
 - Social worker to help assist with de-escalating situations
 - Push for officers to live in the city for a minimal of 5 years upon being hired.
 - NJ Grants for community and cops programs
- Mentoring program for at-risk children
 - Having teachers volunteer to participate can help change culture of school.

Mission

The QOL Committee is a volunteer committee, formed by the Asbury Park City Council, whose goal is to identify critical code enforcement, housing, cultural and recreational issues facing the City, and to create unique, creative solutions to address these quality of life issues in a positive way. The QOLC is committed to operating with the highest degree of professionalism, integrity and efficiency, to ensure that Asbury Park continues to be a diverse and thriving community in which to live, work, and vacation.

- Example of where it happened in Jackson, NJ
- Cazzeek Brothers is a group in Asbury Park who may be good candidates for the mentoring program.
