

ASBURY PARK CABLE TV ADVISORY COMMITTEE

MINUTES OF MARCH 16, 2022

6 PM - STEPHEN CRANE HOUSE, 508 FOURTH AVENUE

Call to order by Chairlady Ginny Otley

Present: Ginny Otley, Secretary Ed Salvas, Station Mgr. Nate McCallister, Deputy Mayor Amy Quinn, Danielle Bulluck, Muata Greene

Absent: Michelle Gladden

Approval of the Minutes of February 16, 2020 – The Minutes were approved by voice vote on a motion by Ginny Otley, 2nd by Nate McCallister

Station Manager Nate McCallister had the following updates:

Five APTV Videos were submitted for the JAG Awards to be presented on May 25, 2022, Muata Greene Spring Weather Forecast, Spotlight on Wesley Lake, Interview with Mayor Moor, “Segregated Seashore” and “Women’s History” By Charles Trott.

The new Mixer and new mics have arrived for the Council Chambers and will be installed soon.

Several new programs have been added to the schedule: City Council, Planning Board, Zoning Board, Board of Ed., Deal Lake Commission and “Monmouth in Focus.” A concert at the Berkeley Hotel to benefit the Asbury Park Museum has been taped and is being edited by Nicole.

Jersey Access Group – Ed Salvas reported on the Feb. 23 meeting with a new product presentation by TelVue as well as a discussion of Closed Captioning. A virtual Station Manager’s meeting is scheduled for March 18 and A new program, “Aging Insights” is available for APTV to air. Produced by NJAAW (New Jersey Advocates for Aging Well)

OLD BUSINESS

Deputy Mayor Quinn will request approval of $2,000 from the City Manager for stickers and coasters promoting APT V to be distributed around the city.

APTV will create a video promoting the locations of Food Pantries in Asbury Park with their hours and other information.

NEW BUSINESS

Amy Quinn discussed a video about the APPD Police Athletic League. Nate McCallister reminded about the need for parental approval to tape children.

Ed Salvas suggested a review of the Franchise Agreement with Cablevision/Optimum and will have details from the Board of Public Utilities at the next meeting.

ADJOURNMENT

Motion to adjourn by Ginny Otley, 2nd by Ed Salvas. Next meeting Wednesday April 20, 2022

/